Kyiv and Trypillian Culture

What to see: during the tour you will see the most interesting places in Kyiv – the capital of Ukraine and will have an excursion to the Museum of Trypillian Culture – the oldest and one of the most developed cultures in Europe. When Europeans lived in caves Trypillians constructed 2 floor houses. The other unforgettable excursion will be to a real old Ukrainian village. You will feel like back in 18th century and will taste the best of Ukrainian traditional cuisine.

Starts from: Kyiv

Duration: 2 days

Price: from 80 Euro per person

Polissia reserve

What to see: Polissia – the mysterious territory on the border of Ukraine and Belorussia. Until 19th century a very little was known about this territory. Even scientific expeditions passed by these impenetrable swamps and needleleaf wildwood forests. Only at the end of 19th century after the climate change due to which swamps became smaller the firs expeditors came here. They were amazed finding couple of villages among these forests, where people still live in wooden houses stiffed with moss and worship pagan traditions.

Today Polissia is national reserve. The director of the Polissia reserve is one of the best experts of wild animals in Europe. The personally guides excursions and due to his inspiration and deep knowledge of the territory you will be amazed of what you will see and what you will hear.

Starts from: Kyiv

Duration: 3 days

Price: from 85 Euro per person

The Dunau Wonders

What to see: The last live delta in Europe – Dunau delta, where this big river falls into the Black Sea and real Ukrainian Venice – Vylkovo – the village on river are the key wonders of this trip.

During the trip you will be photohunting for Dunau pelicans, swim to the popular “0 kilometer” where Dunau falls into the Black Sea, taste special Donau fish soup, visit Bilgorod Dnistrovskyi castle and try the best vines in Shabo vinery!

Starts from: Kyiv or Odessa

Duration: 4 days (from Kyiv) and 3 days (from Odessa)

Price: from 115Euro per person (from Kyiv), from 95 Euro per person (from Odessa)

Askania Nova and Byruchy Island

What to see: The virgin steppe of Askania Nova – the last such area in Europe and Byriuchy Island – Ukrainian Safari are heaven for photohunters.

Askania Nova is a biosphere reserve which covers 33,307.6 hectares in Khersonska oblast (district) of Ukraine. The reserve consists of the acclimatization zoo, botanical garden and virgin steppe preserve. In addition to local species it hosts ostriches, bisons, antelopes, wild horses, llamas, zebras and many bird species. The reserve is also known for the group of Przewalski's Horse, the largest group kept in captivity.

If you travel not far South from Askania Nova and swim 40 minutes by boat through Azov sea you will get to Byriuchy island. Dears, foxes, rabbits, llamas live there in free conditions. Equipped with your photo camera on open cars you will drive through the island.

One more miracle in this region is Syvash lake – little “dead sea” between Azov and Black Seas.

Starts from: Kyiv or Kherson

Duration: 4 days (from Kyiv) and 3 days (from Kherson)

Price: from 115Euro per person (from Kyiv), from 95 Euro per person (from Kherson)

Vine tour to Transcarpathians

What to see: Transcarpathians is one the most popular places to travel to in Ukraine. It has a very deep vinery traditions and the Young Wine Festival, which is held on the third week of November gathers thousands of tourists and represents the best vines of private local vineries.

For a long time until WWI this territory was a part of Hungarian Empire and after that was under Chehoslovakia. Therefore it represents a mix which makes its culture and architecture very special.

Transcarpathian castles are the most mysterious and beautiful in Ukraine. The architecture of cities Yzhorod and Mykachevo are the best samples of European architecture traditions.

Moreover, this land is rich on nature wonders. The gorgeous Synevir lake, waterfalls, mountains are the places to visit and enjoy.
